E. P. Caruthers, of the Midland Hotel, and E. A. Sample, an attorney of that place, were in the city on business yesterday.
G. G. Potterfield and wife of Emporia are stopping at the Occidental. Mr. Potterfield will be in the city some days attending to business.
C. M. Brown and wife and Miss McKibbin, sister of Mrs. Brown, arrived yesterday from Augusta and are quartered at the Occidental. Miss McKibbin is unwell and will be treated by physicians of the city.
Miss Bloomfield, the pianist, during her stay in the city has been the guest of Carey.
Rumor has it that the mystic order of 7 held their meeting at the usual trying place last night at 12.
Ziska & McPhetridge have removed their merchant tailoring establishment from 105 East Douglas to 137 North Main.
E. P. and Frank Ford and their families are expected to arrive today from California where they have been for several months.
Mrs. Will H. Fernald, daughter of Hon. D. H. Moore, one of Topeka's prominent capitalists, is visiting in the city as the guest of Mrs. H. C. Hadley.
The warm and cold waves chased each other over the plains quite lively yesterday. By day's end the latter gained ground and a young March cold wave was raging.
Don't forget the social to be given at the opening of the Women's exchange this evening, at W. C. T. U. headquarters, No. 229 East Douglas avenue. Admission free.
Over one hundred hands are at work on the parking house. The office building is nearly completed. The foundation for some of the main buildings are being put in.
Excavation was commenced yesterday for the residence of Mr. R. E. Lawrence. It is near his present residence on the West Side and will cost when completed about $40,000.
A. J. Rymph, treasurer of the Tribune Town company and W. M. Glenn, secretary of the company, are in the city to attend a meeting of the company today at Messrs. Sankey and Campbell's law office.
Mrs. Prentiss, one of Kansas' brightest women, wife of Noble Prentiss, editor of the Newton Daily Republican, accompanied by her daughter, made the Eagle sanctum a delightful call yesterday afternoon.
The county commissioners leave Sunday evening for Leavenworth. It is rumored they are out on another jail and court house lark. It is also rumored that his purely a court house lark and no jail chores.
Last night two colored men engaged in a lively set on East Douglas. Before they had succeeded in doing each other up very badly they were separated by mutual friends and they agreed to finish the matter at some future time.
Mr. N. A. English is anxious that all real estate men remember the meeting of real estate men tonight at the board of trade rooms. It is hoped that there will be a good attendance as several matters of interest are promised for the occasion.
The streets presented a lively scene yesterday. It was frequently remarked that more were out on the go than for some days. The warm sun in the forenoon and a showing for fair weather until in the evening seems to have imparted new life.

"How is Joe Allen for stage manager?" said one. "The mayor has a fine presence and not likely to get the stage shakes and get his little piece of quite so creditably." Such were the remarks last evening soon after his honor complied with the request of the Benevolent Home at the Crawford Grand.

A fast walking fellow with an overcoat hanging carelessly on his shoulders yesterday was making good time over the Douglas avenue bridge when a quick unexpected gust of wind lifted his coat into the air. He checked up but a moment and it being in the early part of the afternoon and not wanting a coat very bad, he took up his journey.

OH FOR SHAME.
Sensation Most Extraordinary White Friends Hide Their Faces and the Curious are Entertained.
And now it is quite certain that the sensation lovers will very soon find out that luck favors them get onto a circumstance that will bring the flag to half mast and raise the price of craps.

A light has been shed among friends for some days and hoped that what seemed to be true was not true. Further investigation, however, lends little courage to the well wishers and for two days they have almost given up all hopes of a better state of affairs. The facts have been known to the EAGLE as fast as they have developed for some days and names are not given owing to the fact that it would bring increased humiliation on innocent members of the family. The man concerned has enjoyed a reputation as being one of the leading professional gentlemen in this city.

THE W. C. T. U. EXCHANGE.
We have been asked a number of times to explain the object of this new enterprise, which we reply, it is a sort of exchange for mothers who have children who are such that they cannot leave their families, and yet wish to do something for their families out of home; an opportunity to bake bread, cake and pies, to make jellies, preserves and salads, to prepare meats, etc., and bring to us, and we will sell them for ten per cent. Those who prefer can make or do fancy work and we will sell for them at the same rate. Another object is to furnish a good lunch to business men who live so far from their place of business that they cannot take all their meals at home. Also to accommodate both ladies and gentlemen spending the day in our city with good meals, and furnish lunch to those who are traveling. Those who wish to become members will please call upon us at W. C. T. U. headquarters, 230 East Douglas avenue, at which place we give an opening on next Saturday evening, March 10, to which all are cordially invited. Admission free. A literary and musical program will be rendered, after which refreshments will be served to those who wish. Ten cents will be charged for women and children and twenty-five cents for gentlemen. Orders to furnish any kind of prepared provisions to families or individuals or for furnishing refreshments for entertainments are solicited.
MISS H. K. FULLER,
MISS MILLER,
MISS STOVER,
Committee.

SURPRISE.
On Thursday evening a host of young people collected together and proceeded to 1014 South Emporia for the purpose of effecting a surprise on Miss Eunice Smith. It is needless to suggest that Miss Smith was completely surprised. However, she made herself quite agreeable with her young friends and all seemed to enjoy the party to the fullest capacity until a late hour when refreshments were served and the usual good-bys were indulged in, when all departed for their several homes, leaving Miss Smith to reflect on the past. The following persons were present: Miss Nellie Baskett, Lillie Handquist, Nellie McPherson, Leora Feltz, Etta Hartzell, Jessie Burns, Ida Cole, Elvie Cole, Salie Cole, Nettie Anderson, Lucy Loveless, Jennie Swaine, Jessie Williams, Zola Loveless, Jessie Reynolds, Eunice Smith, Messrs. Will Hardy, Frank Greaves, Chas. Dillon, James Chidester, Lucius McPherson, James Bonden, George Hartzell, Harvey Reynolds, Merritt Miller, Benjamin Reynolds, Bert Williams, Ed Cone, C. Taylor, Chas. Anderson, William Tracy, Dave Simms, Ora Smith.

AGAIN IN TROUBLE.
Yesterday shortly after noon a rather exciting incident occurred at the city prison in which his honor for the time being saw fit to descend from the bench and do some active police work. A young scoundrel by the name of M. C. who appeared to be unusually boisterous and disagreeable, having it may be remembered created quite a disturbance some time ago at the Caldwell house, was loitering around the cooler. He was in the act of putting something through the bars to a prisoner within, just as Chas. Dixon, the judge's son, and Officer Nat Harris came down the stairway from the court. As soon as he saw the two men he commenced abusing them and struck at young Dixon who caught the fresh young man in his arms and in a second landed on one of his back holding him in spite of his kicking and yelling until the judge came down with the keys to the prison. As soon as he had been put in the cage he picked up a heavy iron bar and struck at the judge, coming within an inch of striking him a severe blow on the head.

TALKS OF UNFAIR TREATMENT.
A right of way man for a railroad company was yesterday heard expressing himself in emphatic terms concerning the state law relating to his business. "You put a jury up to hear a case against a railroad company," said he, "and they are quite sure to give their neighbor, the plaintiff, a good showing. They will do it unconsciously, thinking they don't want to make their neighbor mad, and that corporations have plenty of money and a few thousand dollars don't make much difference anyway, and it is given to the fellow citizen." Well, several hundred of these cases call for a pile of money. If we could get as fair a trial as an individual we would feel more like we were with friends and I venture to assert that some legislation on the question will be tried next winter.

THE REVIVAL MEETING.
Notwithstanding the sudden change in the weather there was a good sized attendance at the Baptist church last night to hear Mr. Hurlbut preach. Mr. Hurlbut was taken sick in the afternoon and did not put in an appearance at the church last night. The evangelist preached a very able sermon, but the house being over heated by the two large stoves and with no ventilation whatever, the air in the room was anything but pleasant so that before the sermon was half finished most of the people were about ready to go to sleep. The result of this poor ventilation was to deaden the sensibilities of the people so that nobody felt the need of salvation and consequently none went forward or asked an interest in the prayers of the church.

ACCIDENTAL SHOOTING.
Officer A. J. Smith was yesterday morning about 5 o'clock accidentally shot in the arm. His revolver dropped from his belt and the hammer striking upon the pavement the firearm was discharged and the ball entered the muscle of the arm inflicting a painful but not serious wound. The young officer may, however, be unable to perform his duty for some time to come.

TAKEN IN.
Last night Officer Dennis called at an upstairs room on North Main street and when he left he had in charge one Ed. He checked up but a moment and it being in the early part of the afternoon and not wanting a coat very bad, he took up his journey.

FUNERAL.
R. J. McDonald's infant child died yesterday afternoon and will be buried from the family residence this afternoon at 2 p. m.

ANNOUNCEMENT.
The club rooms of the Wichita Chess, Checker and Whist club will be open this evening, 229 N. Main, third floor, from 8 to 10 p. m. All members are expected to be present.
L. C. MILLER, Sec'y.

RECEPTION TO MR. BLOOMFIELD.
Madame Bloomfield has been tendered a public reception at the Carey Grand hotel, and has accepted the same for this (Saturday) evening.
The reception will take place in the parlors of the Carey Grand from 8 to 10 o'clock and promises to be a brilliant social event.

THE ICE CROP.
A gentleman engaged in the ice business said yesterday that the amount of natural ice stored away for the coming demand is more than double the crop of any former year. All the companies handling it had built more houses and all are chock full.

PUT ON YOUR BRAKES.
It will be remembered that some weeks ago, Gus Mills, the shoe man, was in the city and rented a house for his folks. Mr. J. C. Woodworth, yesterday, had a chance to rent the house for much more than Gus had rented it and wired the fact and brought the following reply: "No put on your brakes. My people want to on the fifteenth," which in plain words means that he will be married and settled at Wichita by that date.

A NEW PATENT.
Mr. George Gray was seen turning around the street yesterday something after the fashion of a whirledig, in a red buggy. He said it was late goods and liable to permit of a good deal of service. It is the patent of Mr. R. M. McClellan, of Clinton, Ohio, who is interested in a carriage factory at that point. He came here to look over the city and calculate on the inducements for putting in a factory at this point. He will show his patent to a committee on manufactures of the board of trade.

AFTER A BRIDGE.
A bridge contractor was wearing out his teeth yesterday on the subject of preparing a bid on a county bridge advertised by the commission. He said he had called on the county clerk for the length and width of the proposed bridge and could not get the desired information. One member of the board had said two hundred feet long and fourteen feet wide and another said two hundred feet long and sixteen feet wide and how he should figure the fellow did not know in possession of that sort of information.

THE PARTIES TO THE SEDGWICK AFFAIR.
John Busby, the man shot by Jack Tozier in the Sedgwick building a short time ago is rapidly improving so Dr. Purdue says, and may before long be able to get out and attend to his business. Yesterday the trial of the Tozier boys took place in Justice Walker's court. Charles, the foreman, was discharged, there being found no reason to hold him, while Jack, the one by whom the shooting was done, was held to answer to the charge of assault with intent to kill.

Y. M. C. A. ECHOES.
Young men's prayer meeting 8 to 8:45 this evening in the association room.
Mr. J. M. Pollock will conduct the noon day prayer meeting today from 12:30 to 12:45. Subject, International at Sunday school lesson.
Meeting of invitation committee at 9 a. m. and 3 p. m., tomorrow as usual.
Regular gospel meeting and song service in First Presbyterian church at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.
Rev. T. S. Holyston will address the young men's meeting tomorrow afternoon.

CHURCH SOCIAL.
The Social given last night at Councilman Kenyon's, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of Dodge Avenue M. E. church, was largely attended by people from all parts of the city. There were no less than one hundred and twenty-five persons present. After the literary program lunch was served to every one. The evening was spent in social converse and visiting, in which all took an interesting and active part. These meetings will have to be adjourned to some public hall if the crowds continue to increase.

BLOWED OUT.
Mr. G. Turley, of Olathe, was in the city yesterday on his way home from California. He has been in that land of sand and "climate" for some months, and is now ready to discuss at length concerning the process of reducing to skeletons eastern speculators. It is not a little amusing to hear how the eastern speculator has got in his work on the eastern speculators. As represented the boom has collapsed, and the whole state is feeling very much like a man the next day after a big drunk. More beggars to the square inch than grasshoppers in Kansas on an average year, and many hundred people driving ways and means of getting back east fast enough to be able to make a living.

THEY RAN AWAY.
Yesterday appeared to be an unusually good day for runaways. In the forenoon about 9 o'clock two horses hitched to a farm wagon loaded with corn, became frightened on Oak street near Mead avenue and ran out the street. They were captured near Chisholm creek, but over half of the load had been strewn along the road.
Two street car mules managed to get away from their driver yesterday in front of the car stables on North Main. They ran down street and into a yard when becoming tangled up in some trees and bushes they were easily found and returned to the stable.
Thursday night about 11 o'clock a runaway team pulling after a team of a buggy went up Waco avenue to Tenth and then turned east, strewn along the street the remnants of the rig and the harness.

THE COURTS.
In Chas. Zeilinger vs. Fritz Schmitzler, in the first trial a judgment in ejectment for plaintiff was rendered.
Henry Schmitzler vs. A. Billman; judgment for plaintiff for $1,140.83.
R. F. Bean vs. J. E. Waltz et al.; judgment for plaintiff for $600.
F. Alexis Berry vs. Susan F. Browning et al.; judgment for plaintiff for $300.40.
JUSTICE WALKER'S CASE.
Private information yesterday received in the city from Topeka is to the effect that the case against Justice Walker of this city is dismissed, the demurrer filed by judge's attorney to the quo warranto proceeding instituted against him by the state having been sustained by the supreme court.

POLICE COURT.
E. W. Nelson, a drunk that the night before fell into the hands of the police, was committed to the cooler yesterday in default of money with which to pay his fine.

J. G. Eikelmann was called upon to pay $5 and costs for peddling without license. He did it and congratulated himself that he got off so easy.

In the afternoon a number of fair, frail young creatures came up to call accompanied by one or more members of the police force. Stella Wilson and Nellie Martin, Grace Lynn and Emma Ward each paid $8 and costs; while Mollie Berger, as mistress, paid $40, and five inmates of her place each contributed $10 to the support of the city.

The case against Jake Pecora was postponed until this forenoon on account of the sickness of the defendant.

JUSTICE COURT.
The preliminary hearing in state vs. Charles and Jack Tozier, for the shooting of John Busby in the Sedgwick block, was held yesterday afternoon at Justice Walker's court. The following witnesses were examined for the state: William C. Owens, G. C. Purdue, D. A. Sullivan, Samuel Eckart and Fred Stewart.

When their evidence was completed a motion was made to discharge Charles Tozier, but it was overruled.

The following witnesses for the defense were then examined: Charles Crewson, William Anderson, Harry Keller, Henry Link, L. M. Rowland and Chas. Tozier.

The county attorney made a motion to hold the defendants to answer at the district court to the charge of assault with intent to kill. His honor, however, overruled the motion so far as Charles Tozier was concerned, but held his brother Jack in the sum of $1,000.

State vs. W. H. Dunn, charged by his wife with assault and battery, was yesterday passed over until later.

A petition was yesterday filed to admit to probate the will of Jabez Lambert, deceased.

A petition was also filed to appoint a guardian for G. H. Herring, insane.

AMUSEMENTS.
AT THE CRAWFORD GRAND.
It was a rare treat that was last night given lovers of music at the Crawford Grand in the piano recital of Mme. Fannie Bloomfield, assisted by Miss Hamblin and the Lotus club.

There was a large and critical audience present, including many of the cultured people as well as most prominent and able musicians of the city.

The boxes were all with one exception taken, Col. Lewis and family occupying the one immediately in front of the stage on the right; Mr. and Mrs. Levy, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Smythe, Mr. and Mrs. Coleman, of Chicago, in the one behind them.

On the opposite side of the house were Mayor Allen and wife, and Mr. Scott Corbett and wife. The balcony boxes upon the left had for occupants Hons. R. R. Hatfield and R. E. Lawrence and their wives, and on the opposite side of the house Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Schmitzler.

At 8:30 the entertainment commenced with a selection of songs from Lamothie. Then the Lotus club comprising Messrs. Crawford, Cushman, Hull and Bracken. With such excellence did they render the selections that they were received with great applause.

This worthy club throughout the evening acquitted themselves with great credit; their serenade from Marschner forming quite a fitting conclusion to an entertainment of such merit.

Mme. Bloomfield upon her appearance was accorded quite a reception. Her first selection was Chopin's Polonaise; in it she immediately won the heart and affection of her hearers for no sooner was it finished than applause after applause greeted its almost if not quite faultless rendition.

This was followed by Mendelssohn's Scherzo and so on through the whole program, every number a gem which for the time being appeared to hold the hearers enraptured with the sweet and delicious tones. After the performance of Tarantella she was recalled and presented with a beautiful floral offering—a large ham of President Lincoln.

Miss Lillian Hamblin made a decidedly favorable impression in the rendition of her solo, "Across the far blue hills, Marie," her rich voice seemed to increase and gain in purity and sweetness from first to last, and when its notes had died away so hearty an encore was given that she returned and sweetly sang "Annie Laurie."

Mme. Bloomfield, as was to be seen seated at the piano, and in the last three numbers, executed, it seemed, the most beautiful and striking part of the performance. It was in the value caprice of Rubins' etc., as well as in the nocturne of Leschetizky and in the Rhapsodie Hongroise of Liszt that her remarkably fine technique, clear, ringing tones, as well as the sweetness with which her delivery is marked, was perhaps best displayed. At the conclusion of the last number she was again recalled.

Mayor Allen afterwards, in behalf of the ladies of the Benevolent Home, under whose auspices and for whose benefit the recital was given, returned thanks to the people who had so generously assisted in making the entertainment a success, and announced a reception this evening at the Carey Grand to be given to Mme. Bloomfield.

A SIDE PLAY.
Last night a little occurrence happened at the opera house during the entertainment that trivial though in itself may tend to work the ability of the Wichita audience to take advantage of circumstances. A beautiful floral offering had been prepared for Mme. Bloomfield by friends and was to be presented after the execution of Tarantella. The usher in endeavoring to get to the front of the stage was impeded by some persons sitting in the front row and Mme. Bloomfield unconsciously of the gift that awaited her had reached behind the scenes. The usher, chagrined, almost fainted in his steps at his failure. Mr. Levy, however, sitting in the right parquette box caught the situation and commenced a vigorous applause which was soon taken up all over the house, and the pianist returned to be presented with the flowers.

ANNE PILEY TO-NIGHT.
The appearance of Anne Piley at the new opera house will be an event of great interest to the amusement loving public. She is an established favorite, admired alike for her clever acting and her vocal culture. Her singing has always been a great attraction and this season she has several new songs and brilliant medleys, composed and arranged expressly for her. In her company will be Miss Pixley, who will present the "Deacon's Daughter" with the same excellent company that supported her during the thirteen weeks she played in New York City, and at the matinees will play her latest success, "The Charity Girl." It is the story of a charity girl who is an heiress, but who is wrongly shipped at an early age. The story is a fast, it is thrilling, running through the story and the proper element of villainy. Miss Pixley has an opportunity for the display of her versatile powers as actress and singer. The sale of seats is already very large and a crowded house will no doubt greet this charming actress.

THE MUSEUM.
This week's attendance to see "Uncle Tom's Cabin" has been a very flattering one to the management. The showmen are making every effort to please his patrons. Next week a grand double bill is promised that will eclipse all previous attractions. Today a grand children's matinee will be given the little ones will be admitted at half price and have an opportunity of seeing "Topsy" and "Little Eva." Commencing next Monday afternoon, every lady who visits the museum, either afternoon or night, will receive a ticket entitling her to a chance for a solid gold ladies watch and vest chain that will be drawn Saturday afternoon April 7th. The drawing will be a public one and superintended by a committee of ladies from the audience. Positively no one will hold tickets but ladies visiting the museum. The watch is a handsome, was purchased of Chas. Mosbacher, the jeweler on Douglas avenue, and will be on exhibition in his show window today.

MR. LODGE'S BENEFIT.
Extensive preparations are going on for the benefit to be given Mr. Lodge tonight at the Main Street Theatre. Almost all the seats have been sold and an immense audience is promised. A programme of decided merit is promised. Many professional people, as well as local talent have offered to take part in the entertainment.

"Senator" Leavitt has gone so far as to pawn his mustache in order to the better impersonate the Chinese character. Pictures of Mrs. Lodge and little Leavitt, which have been taken by Mr. Rogers, the well known photographer, will be given to all ladies attending. In fact everything points to this being one of the most pleasant and enjoyable entertainments ever given in this popular house.

FANTASMA.
The New York Dramatic News says: The Hanton Brothers have the honor of playing to the largest business of any attraction that has played at Henck's opera house this season. Their success is indeed wonderful. "Fantasma," although familiar to the majority of theater goers, drew immense audiences at every performance, even standing room was at a premium.

There have been many new and wonderful changes and some very clever features introduced in this year's production, making it even more attractive than ever. One of the principal scenes not seen last year is that showing the quarters of King Zamel at the bottom of the sea. It is exceedingly effective and most realistic. The third act, which is entirely new, is replete with many new and startling effects. The scenery and transformations were magnificent, especially the closing transformation in the last act. The specialties by Miss Laura Burt, Louis Pizarello, the Photos and Little Tootsy were first class in every respect.

The excavations for the brick business building to be erected on Main, just north of the Occidental has been commenced.

Coleman Rogers, a banker at Meade Center, and W. K. Palmer, a real estate man of that town, came in yesterday morning. Coleman is well known in the city, and seemed to have a very pleasant day of it shaking hands with friends. Mr. Palmer had a good word for his town, and said they were glad that business soon have more direct communication with Wichita, the trade center of the southwest.

For every department on the way, and will arrive daily. It takes a little nerve, but we know that Wichita is now a city, and all the new effects and novelties that are made must be shown by us, and that people are getting sick and tired of trash sales. We will positively show one of the best stocks in the state. Our stock of Dress Goods and Carpets when complete, will have attractions that cannot help but please. As we are always prepared to make low prices, it will certainly be to your interest to examine our stock before you think of buying.
